THE DEAF AND DUMB. Second Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf and Dumb. THIRD DAY.

From our own Reporter.

Hantson, Ct., Friday, Aug. 29, 1851. The Convention at the American Asylum closed this afternoon, after an important and inter-osing session of three days, during which time a number of papers have been presented and discuss.ons have been elicited which will throw light upon the instruction of the Deaf and Domb.

The morning session opened with an exposition of Mark vil. M. and prayer in the language of signs, by

A Committee was appointed, at the motion of Mr. Weld, to respend to the communication of Mr. Galwest, which I transmitted to you yesterday. The Committee consists of Messrs. Weld and Cary.

The order of the day-the course of instruction pursued in the different Institutions for the Deaf and Dumb—was then taken up. Dr. Peet suggested that they should be given in the order of age. Acordingly Mr. Wend gave a succinct account of the at of operations pursued in the American Asylum. Additional iflustrations were given by Mr. Stone and Mr Turner, the latter remarking upon the plan of Mr Turner, the same and the services of the assets of the assets of the Asylum's exact by Mr. Weid, in conclusion of the Asylum's issory, that the industrial portion of the establishment now, on the whole, is made to yield a slight need now on the whose, a man-profit.

Dr. Perr gave an explanation of the modus ope-randi of the area. York institution. The pupils rise at 3, breaking soon after, are in school live and a half-hours daily, in the shops two or three hours, and ritre at 9 or 9; o'clock. Taken as a whole, the manufacturing establishment pays its way, though there is hitle or no gain in some separate departments.

The Business Committee made a report, through Dr. Peet, on two communications received from Mr. John A Jacobs, the Principal of the Kentucky Institution for the Deaf and Dumb. One of these letters contained suggestions for the establishment of Institutions of this character in the different states of the south and West.

South and West.

A resolution in relation to this matter was presented by Prof. Barnard. It was laid over for the sented by Prof. Darward.

The other recommendation of Mr. Jarobs contem-plates the establishment of schools for the Deaf and bumb on missionary ground.

The investigation of the latter subject is provided to by the following resolution, offered by Frot. Bar-hard, and silepted unanimously, viz.

The same Committee was appointed by the Chair for the consideration of both these propositions. It consists of breasts Barnard, Jacobs and Cary.

Mr. I. L. Freer, of New-York, read an interesting inercaphical sketch of James Edward Meystre, a ceat, dumb and bined young man, who has been instructed by Mr. Heart Birzel, Frincipal of the Institution for the Bined at Lausanne, Switzerland. Mr. Hizzel, Brinary has reconstructed, was in this country a year ago, and took a prominent part in the First Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf and Dumb, bein in August, 1850, at the Institution in New-Fork, his success in instruction has been remarkable. Young Meystre, who is reterred to in this communication, was a deaf-mute from birth, and be-

Mr. Peer's description of the Institution at Lausanne will be interesting to those who may have met with Mr. Hirzelin this country

"It was no good fertune during a recent tour in Europe to stop at the interesting village of Lausanne in Switzerland. As one of the principal objects of stanction, I visited the Institution for the Bland under the direction of M. H. Hirzel. The institution our which be presides is a remarkably neat and elegant building, situated on a high elevation of ground known as the Signal, and commanding a fine view of the Lake of Geneva, at a point where its placid waters he embosomed aimid some of the most pactures que chifs of Switzerland and Savo. He received us with enthusiasm, conducted us through every portion of his establishment, and gave us the most exvellent facilities for judging of the attainments of his pupils. A portion of the building is devoted to the juriposes of an Eye harmary, the restroughed in irremediable physical darkness, may yet home. The light of knowledge pourse upon their mander to the accommodation of those was cal-strought in irremediable physical distances, may yet have the incht of knowledge poured upon their mads. In the instruction of the Blind, Br. Hirzel-bas evidently brought an endightened philosophy to his aid, while his mechanical contrivances for adding them in writing and printing surpassed anything we asserted in Paris.

saw even in Paris."

A letter addressed to Mr. Gallauber, in reply to the note received by the Convention from him yesterday, was presented at the afternoon session by the Committee to whom the subject had been referred, it is a merited tribute to the labors of Mr. Gallaudet, and will be read with interest. On motion of Dr. Peet, it was ordered to be transmitted to Mr. Gallaudet.

The Convention finished, we may find a interesting chapter in the history of the Public institutions of Hartford And, first, of the American

It is well known that this Institution was the first one established in the United States for the instrucf its foundation were briefly as follows. Alice Cogswell, the third daughter of Dr. Mason F. Conswell, of Hartford, born on the 31st August, 805, became deaf when two years old, from he effects of a malignant "spotted fever." Beore she had reached the age of four years, the ower of articulation was also destroyed. No in-elligible mode of communication between the child and her friends remained. The sympathics of the father were naturally awakened in a high degree, and the efforts of friends were added to his own in the endeavor to alleviate the condition of his daughter. Among these friends was Mr. Thomas H. Galinadet, a young neighbor of takent and education, whose attention was forcibly attracted by the deaf and dumb child while she was amusing herself with other children at his father's house. He succeeded in amparting to her some knowledge of material things, and in this manner he was led to an intimate intercourse with the family of Dr. Corswell. The father obtained information of the success attending some attempts in France and Great Britain to instruct the Deaf and Dumb in the common branches of knowledge, and finally became convinced that Christian duty demanded the establishment of schools for a similar purpose in this country.

During the first week of its existence, it numbered seven pupils. Meanwhile, Mr. Gallaudet had undergone a course of study in the instruction of Deaf-Mutes, in the Royal institution for the Deaf and Dumb at Paris, under the Abbe Sicard. He returned to the United States on the 18th of August, 1816, accompanied by Mr. Laurest Clerc, an intelligent pupil of the Abbe, who has since continued a teacher in the Institution in this City. this City.

The "Retreat for the Insane," in the outskirts of Hartford, is another old institution which has also given character to the city for beneficent enterprises. The Retreat was founded in April, 1824.

The whole number of patients admitted has been 2,160, of whom more than 1,000 have recovered. The task of Dr Jons S. BUTLER, the Physician and Superintendent, is ardnown and trying, but he is the man for the post. His management of the patients is admirable, and his treatment is free from violence

There now 157 patients 72 being males, and 85 cmales. The whole number admitted since Dr. nutler's connection with the Institution is 958.

The grounds attached to the Retreat are tastefully laid out, the edifice is planned with an eye to comercit, the premises are a model of cleanliness, and as excellent method of classification obviates many of the implementation of classification obviates many of the implementation of the implementation of the implementation of the witnessed in former years in an Insane Asylum.

OPENING OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS .- On Monday all, or nearly all, the Public Schools of this City were opened for the Winter session, We are glad learn that these noble monuments of the enligh ened legislation of the Empire State (which we of the City feel more than ever proud of since we had the pleasure of insuring their permanency by an almost unanimous vote) are generally in excellent ondition, and that the prospects for the Winter campaign against ignorance are such as may well ratify every friend of free and liberal education-We should have been pleased to make more special nention of each School, but their number renders esterday morning, a fire broke out in a small frame No. 128 Adams-st., conjointly occupied as a twelling by a family named Stelly, and as a carpenter shop by Mr. Joseph Tuttle, which was entirely onsumed, together with the contents. The family st everything they possessed, and the tools, materials, &c., in the shop, were all destroyed. Mr. Tut-tle's less will exceed $1,000, and Mr. Stelly's about $300, neither of which is insured. The fire spread rapidly, and soon enveloped the buildings on either side, which were nearly destroyed before the water from the engines could be brought to bear upon them. No. 132, a three-story frame dwelling house, owned by Mr. Bulep Van Cleef, and occupied by Mr. Moses Odell and Misses Hetty and Abigail Furman sustained serious damage, although the building was not entirely burned down. The inmates succeeded in saving most of their goods and furniture. Several wooddieds in the rear were also destroyed. The damage on the building will reach $500, which is fully covered by insurance in the Hartford (Ct.) Insurance Company. The house adjoining, owned and occupied by Mr. Morris Simonson, was damaged to the extent of about $150-insured in the Brooklyn Insurance Company.

A three-story frame house on the other side of the carpenter's shop was also nearly destroyed, the damage sustained amounting to upward of $600. It was owned by Judge Greenwood and in the occupancy of Mr. E. Fuller, who saved most of his property.

Three journeymen carpenters in the employ of Mr. Tuttle, named John Van Riper, Abraham Litchtbolt and John Ind, lost all their tools, valued in the aggregate at $150. The fire originated from a small furnace in the year of the carpenter's shop, and was purely accidental THE GENERAL ASSOCIATION (CONGRE-PATIONAL) OF NEW-YORK.—This body, composed of Delegates from the several local associations of Congregational Ministers and Churches in the State, wilj hold its annual meeting at the Plymouth Church-(Rev. THE CATHOLIC ORPHANS OF BROOKLYN .-A magnificent entertainment took place at the Military Cardens on Monday evening, consisting of diplays of fire-works, &c., &c., accompanied by excellen music from Dodworth's Brass Band, which had been gotten up for the benefit of the Catholic Orphan Asyum in Congress-st. Upward of 2,500 tickets were sold, at 50 cents each, and there were at least 2,000 people in attendance. The pyrotechnic display, prepared by Messrs. Edge, was variegated and beautiful-On one of the pieces were the words, "We Adopt the Orphans," and on another, "Accept the Thanks of the Orphans," which latter concluded the proceedngs, and the vast assemblage dispersed—satisfaction eaming upon every countenance.

COURT MARTIAL .- A Naval Court Martal assembled Tuesday morning on board the North-Carolina, Capt. Reese, President, to try three seamen, named Thomas Glancy, Henry Taylor and Thomas Acklin, for breach of discipline on board the St. Lawrence.

ALL SAINTS CHURCH .- This new organiration is another instance of the activity which aninate the members of the Episcopal Communion in our city. Numerous as are the Churches of Brooklyn, and deservedly as it is named the City of Churches, yet, so rapid is the growth of its population, and so great; and incessant the demand for supplying the spiritual needs of members of the several religious societies, that it seems almost impossible to keep pace with the necessity. The parochial center of All Saints is not very far distant from the City Hall n a section, where the population is dense, and the neighborhood one of the most attractive for its comeliness and quiet. The Congregation convenes on Sundays, for the present, in the Brooklyn Institute. whence it will move, on or about the first of November next, to the building of Messrs. Stone & Sother, corner of Fulton-av. and Dubervoise-place, which is in the vicinity of the central point of the parish The edifice in the course of erection by these gentlenen is designed to be a noble ornament to this part of the city. The religious services of All Saints Church will be held in this building on and after the time above last mentioned, and until the Churchedifice shall be erected, the preliminary arrangements for which are to be made at once, Rev. Charles Seymour, late Rector of St. James Parish, Skaneate les, has been unammously called to the Rectorship of All Saints, and officiated last Sunday.

ARRESTS BY THE POLICE.-A German ARRESTS BY THE FOLICE.—A GETMAN named John Windle was arrested by Officer Chase, of the Third District, for entering the house of Dr. Graves, in Court-st., on Sunday, ostensibly for the purpose of soliciting aims, and during the temporary absence of the servant stealing therefrom the Doctor's cloak. He was brought before Justice Truman Smith, and the charge being proved he was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the Penalestea.

Sunday evening Officer Hanley, of the City On Sunday evening Officer Hanley, of the City Court, arrested a suspicious-looking personage, while coming from a house in Washington-st, and upon inquiry ascertained that the occupants were unacquanted with him. He was taken to the First District Station-house, and on being searched it was found that a pair of pantaloons, shirts, handkerchiefs, &c., were concealed about his person, nicely folded and laid under the clothes he had on. He had, also, in his possession, a small hatchet. Yesterday morning he was brought before Justice King, and a portion of the property found on him identified by Mr. Leenard De Lavine as belonging to an occupant of his house. He gave his name as Philip Mahoney, and said he resided at No. 23 Mulberry-st. N. Y. The offense being fully proved, he was sent to the Pentreutiary for six months.

To the Citizens of New-Orleans.

To the Citizens of New-Orleans.

From the N O Delta, Aug 27.

Not having engaged in the cause of Cuba, personally, I have forborne to inquire into the plan of operations, further than has been common to all our citizens, who took an interest in the cause. To-day, however, I have made the proper inquiries, to enable me to form an opinion as to what is likely to be done, and the conclusion to which I have come is that if the citizens of New-Orleans do not subscribe liberally, there is no prospect of any aid being nurished to the brave and gallant young men whose lives are now periled in the mountains of Cuba.

There is no time for delay, we have had one tale of blood and mirder, and we may soon have another. My object is, if possible, to save the remnant of the gallant band who defeated the forces of Gen. Enna, on the 13th instant, and marched into the interior on the 15th. This we know from the official publications in Haviana, and further all is doubt and uncertainty. This, however, is certain, that the same men who defeated Gen. Enna, and compelled him to send back to Havana force-inforcements, when they were only defended by works hastily thrown up around an old building, will be able to hold him at bay for some time, when they reach monutains so well adapted to defense as those of Cuba are. This is more certain if the people of the country unite with them, which is confidently stated to be the case, by correspondents from Havana, who, I am fully satisfied, have not made statements which they do not believe.

But, fellow citizens, after examining the position in a military point of view, I am satisfied that our friends and brother will be finally overwhelmed by superior Spatish force, if they do not receive assistance.

However anxious we may be to relieve those who are in danger, we must not hazard any more small detacliments—we have had enough of that. Whatever is done, misst be done promptly and efficiently. Whether anything at all can be done, depends upon you, men of New-Orleans. There is no time to seek aid from a distance. There is no time to seek aid from a distance. There is no lack of men, who burn to succor the surviving comrades of the slaughtered Crittenden, Kerr, and their brave companions. It is the means that are wanting. I therefore plainly appeal to you to come forth generously and promptly it will require a considerable sum to do anything that you or I would sanction, for I say at once, that I will never consent that our noble young men shall again be hazarded with insufficient minimaters, and insufficient means. (Signed). Fill's Howston. However anxious we may be to relieve those who

The Murder Near Penfield.—It appears from the testimony taken by Coroner Pullis, that John Gilmore was found on Thursday morning, in the road leading to Penfield from Brighton, and near the new line of railroad, which the workmen are now engaged in constructing. He was badly injored about the face and head, as if with a club. He was first seen by a man named Benedict, but the wounded man, aithough still alive, did not answer his questions. Mr. B. went for assistance to the house of Mr. Curtis, near the place where Gilmore lay, and he was taken up and carried to Penfield. Soon after his arrival there he died. Previous to his death, he stated to some of the persons assisting in taking him up, that he had been met the previous evening, as he was going home, by two men, who demanded his money; and on his refusal to surrender it they commenced beating him, and left him unable to help himself. The dead man's watch was gone, but there was a small sum of money remaining in his pockets. Gilmore was a widower, between 60 and 70 years of age, an inoffensive and quiet man, somewhat addicted to incertety.

It will be seen that a reward of $500 is offered for the apprehension of the persons who caused the old man's death.

DEATH OF DE. FITCH.—It is well known

DEATH OF DR. FITCH .- It is well known DEATH OF DR. FITCH.—It is well known that Dr. Fitch was arrested, among others, charged with the late outrages in Michigan. He was imprisoned on the 19th of last April, and appears to have suffered much, physically and mentally. The unnealthy atmosphere of the jail is said to have hastened his death. We trust that this circumstance will lead the authorities of Detroit, and, indeed, County authorities everywhere, to make better provision for the accommodation of its jail tenants. When on his death-bed, Dr. Fitch asserted his innocence of the dreadful crime with which he was charged, and his last dying words to his daughter were—"Amanda, it is hard to part. I die of a broken heart." It is not impossible that injustice has been done to Dr. Fitch, although circumstances were sufficiently strong to warrant his arrest.

HENRY WARD BEECHER.—A correspondent of The Hartford Reguldean, writing from North Killingly, Ct. Aug. 23, who has just been listening to the eloquence of key. Henry W. Beecher, thus speaks of him. "He is not atraid to denounce the fugitive Shave Law as infamous. He said Judas was not the worst man that ever lived, by any means, that there are many at the present day, who, if they that day opportunity, would self christ for a less sum had an opportunity, would self christ for a less sum than Judas received. "Yea, said he, 'they will self themselves for a sixpence, and the purchaser gets cheated at that." "Think you, said he, 'that those, who, in our own country, self daily in the market to the highest bidder, the image of their Maker, would not have sold Christ had they been in Judas's place.
